

1. INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the company. This handbook describes policies, procedures, employee benefits, workplace expectations, security requirements, and operational guidelines.

All employees are expected to read and comply with the policies described in this document.

Failure to follow company policies may result in disciplinary action.

2. WORKING HOURS POLICY

The standard working hours are from 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM, Monday through Friday.

Employees are expected to be available during business hours.

Flexible working arrangements may be approved by managers depending on business requirements.

Employees must inform their managers in advance if they expect to be late.

Repeated lateness may result in performance review discussions.

3. ATTENDANCE POLICY

Employees must mark attendance daily.

Attendance records are maintained by the Human Resources department.

Three consecutive unreported absences may be considered job abandonment.

Employees should notify their reporting manager before taking leave whenever possible.

Attendance compliance is monitored monthly.

4. ANNUAL LEAVE POLICY

Full-time employees are entitled to 12 annual leave days every calendar year.

Annual leave requests should be submitted through the HR portal.

Managers may approve or reject leave requests based on business needs.

Unused annual leave cannot be carried forward beyond company policy limits.

Employees are encouraged to plan vacations in advance.

5. SICK LEAVE POLICY

Employees are entitled to 10 sick leave days per year.

Medical certificates may be required for extended absences.

Sick leave should be reported to the reporting manager as soon as possible.

Abuse of sick leave privileges may result in disciplinary review.

6. REMOTE WORK POLICY

Employees may work remotely up to two days per week with manager approval.

Remote employees are expected to remain available during working hours.

Company communication channels must remain active while working remotely.

Performance expectations remain unchanged during remote work.

7. WORK FROM HOME POLICY

Work from home arrangements may be approved for specific situations.

Employees must maintain a stable internet connection.

Company devices should be used for official purposes only.

Employees are responsible for protecting company information while working remotely.

8. TRAVEL POLICY

Employees traveling for company business may claim travel reimbursement.

Travel requests must be approved before travel begins.

Airfare, train tickets, and approved transportation expenses may be reimbursed.

Expense claims must be submitted within seven days after travel completion.

Supporting bills and receipts are mandatory.

9. BUSINESS TRIP POLICY

Business trips should directly support company objectives.

Employees should maintain professional conduct while representing the organization.

Accommodation expenses must follow company-approved limits.

Unauthorized personal expenses will not be reimbursed.

10. MEDICAL INSURANCE POLICY

The company provides medical insurance coverage for eligible employees.

Coverage includes hospitalization and approved medical treatments.

Employees should contact the insurance provider for claim procedures.

Insurance benefits are subject to policy terms and conditions.

11. MEDICAL REIMBURSEMENT POLICY

Employees may claim reimbursement for approved medical expenses.

Original bills and supporting documents must be submitted.

Reimbursement requests are reviewed by the Human Resources department.

Fraudulent claims may result in disciplinary action.

12. TRAINING POLICY

Employees are encouraged to participate in training programs.

Technical, leadership, and compliance training opportunities are available.

Managers may nominate employees for specialized training sessions.

Training participation contributes to professional development.

13. PERFORMANCE REVIEW POLICY

Performance reviews are conducted twice annually.

Employees receive feedback regarding strengths and improvement areas.

Performance evaluations may influence promotions and compensation decisions.

Managers and employees should collaborate on development goals.

14. PROMOTION POLICY

Promotions are based on performance, skills, experience, and business requirements.

Promotion decisions are reviewed by management.

Promotion opportunities are provided fairly and transparently.

15. COMPENSATION POLICY

Employee salaries are paid monthly.

Compensation structures are reviewed periodically.

Payroll information is confidential.

Salary adjustments depend on performance and organizational considerations.

16. INFORMATION SECURITY POLICY

Employees must protect company information from unauthorized access.

Passwords should never be shared.

Confidential information should only be accessed by authorized personnel.

Security incidents must be reported immediately.

17. PASSWORD POLICY

Passwords must contain at least eight characters.

Passwords should include uppercase letters, lowercase letters, numbers, and special characters.

Passwords must be updated periodically.

Sharing passwords is strictly prohibited.

18. INTERNET USAGE POLICY

Company internet resources should be used responsibly.

Unauthorized downloads and illegal activities are prohibited.

Internet access may be monitored for security purposes.

19. LAPTOP USAGE POLICY

Company laptops are provided for business use.

Employees must not install unauthorized software.

Devices should be secured when unattended.

Loss of company devices must be reported immediately.

20. CODE OF CONDUCT

Employees must behave professionally and respectfully.

Harassment, discrimination, and workplace misconduct are prohibited.

Employees should contribute to a positive work environment.

Ethical behavior is expected at all times.

21. DISCIPLINARY POLICY

Violations of company policies may result in disciplinary action.

Disciplinary actions may include warnings, suspension, or termination.

Each case will be reviewed fairly.

22. HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY

Employees must follow workplace safety guidelines.

Hazards should be reported immediately.

Emergency procedures must be followed during incidents.

Employee safety is a company priority.

23. EXIT POLICY

Employees leaving the organization must complete exit formalities.

Company assets must be returned before the last working day.

Knowledge transfer activities should be completed before departure.

Final settlements will be processed according to company procedures.

END OF DOCUMENT